

WINGS WE LOVE

The high street should be doing good, solid design at a great price, and House Of Fraser has ticked that box this autumn/winter with its Savoy bedstead. A stand-out piece from the new Casa Couture collection, its winged shape is grand and contemporary, but coupled with chic, grey upholstery, it will have staying power as you change your room décor. Savoy double bedstead, £1,199; Simplicity double duvet cover, £70; pillowcases, £20 per pair; Isbika bedspread, £100 (houseoffraser.co.uk)

Stick up

This Norrland pendant shade may be Scandi by name, but we think its simple, pick-up-sticks aesthetic has something of the Japanese design feel about it – a key trend this season. Group three together for subtle impact. Dia 50cm. £49.98 (diy.com)

BELIEVE THE STRIPE

There is no cheerier way to start the day than with welovekaoru's breakfast set, winner of best Launchpad product at this year's Pulse. It reminds Livingetc of penny-sweet bags. From £10 (welovekaoru.com)

Livingetc MICRO TREND

Line art

Simple, minimal wire frameworks create a bold yet understated look in furniture and accessories. Outline chair in powder-coated steel and oak, ash or walnut, from £360 (miltonandmees.co.uk); Marcel Wanders hurricane lantern (H28cm), £29.50 (marksandspencer.com); Window frame mirror (W60 x H78cm), £90 (tesco.com).

To dye for

Deep, washed-out blues are textbook Paola Navone (see her home in Livingetc September '10), hence the Italian designer's new rug collection for Swedish brand, Kasthall. Of the five designs, our pick is Crinkle, for its fresh, trompe l'oeil tie-dye style. Printed on woven wool. £2,138 for 160 x 240cm (sinclairtill.co.uk)
